

Fryeburg Academy

Private Boarding School – Fryeburg , Maine

Fryeburg Academy, a coeducational boarding and day school for grades 9-12 and a post-graduate year, is located on 35-acre campus in a traditional New England small town setting at the edge of the White Mountains. The Fryeburg Academy was founded in 1792.

Fryeburg is a small town with a population of 3500. Life is simple and quiet and the people are very friendly and helpful. It is a good environment for studying. There are a few pizza parlors and grocery store for students to purchase food/items. We also take a weekly trip into North Conway, New Hampshire to shop at larger stores for supplies. The English as a Second Language Department at Fryeburg Academy offers a variety of courses and English language training opportunities for international students. The philosophy of the department emphasizes learning through experience and practices both in and out of the classroom.
