

Sierra Vista School District

Public School District – Sierra Vista , Arizona

Sierra Vista Unified School District has only one high school: Buena High School. Buena HS's mission is to educate all students in a learning environment that promotes self-reliance, self-discipline, and success. Buena offers a comprehensive curriculum including core curriculum classes, Career Technical Education (CTE) programs, fine arts programs, Army Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps, foreign language programs, and resource programs. Buena High School has in excess of 60 clubs and organizations for the students to belong to. Buena High School is also the home of the Buena Performing Arts Center with a main auditorium, which seats over 1300 people.

Community Information

Sierra Vista is in the southeastern corner of Arizona in Cochise County. Sierra Vista, which is Spanish for "Mountain View", serves as the main commercial, cultural, and recreational hub of Cochise County. The area offers a variety of outdoor sightseeing and recreational opportunities and has been called the Hummingbird Capital of the US as the area has hundreds of different bird species.
