

Morgan Hill Unified School District

Public School District – Morgan Hill , California

The Morgan Hill Unified School District encompasses nearly 300 square miles and serves the ethnically diverse population of Morgan Hill, San Martin, portions of San Jose, and unincorporated areas of the county. We are comprised of 14 schools: whereof, two are high schools. The multi-ethnic population includes over 9100 students and 1000 employees. Together we will continue to strive for excellence in educational opportunities and achievement for all students. The school district welcomes international students, urging all to take an active part in the academic work, as well as extracurricular activities offered. For those seeking an academic challenge, the extensive selection of Advanced placement courses are available for enrollment.

School Mission

The mission of the Morgan Hill Unified School District, serving a diverse community, is to create in students a passion for learning and achievement through innovation, dynamic partnerships, and exceptional programs and support services.

Location

75 Min. Southeast of San Francisco. Area population 38,500 people. Morgan Hill is located in southern Santa Clara Valley, approximately 15 miles inland from beautiful Monterey Bay and the Pacific Coast. The Valley is surrounded by the Santa Cruz mountain range to the west, and the Diablo mountain range to the east. Its picturesque hillside setting and exceptional quality of life are very appealing.
