

Nauset Regional High School

Public School District – North Eastham , Massachusetts

In recent years, Nauset Regional High School has been recognized as a Massachusetts Compass School, a Massachusetts Vanguard School of Excellence, and a National Blue Ribbon High School. NRHS students have received such honors as National Merit Finalist, Advanced Placement Student of the Year, All State Musicians and Choral Students, All-American Soccer and Wrestling Players and a nationally recognized Jewelry and Metal Program and offers unique courses like Guitar Building. Living so close to the ocean encourages a great sailing team, and many other open water activities.

Nauset Regional High School provides a high quality program that prepares students to pursue their dreams after high school. The learning environment is challenging and promotes excellence at every level.

Community Information

Nauset Regional High School is located in North Eastham, MA, in the middle of the Cape Cod National Park, a 1/3 of a mile from the ocean. Cape Cod is justifiably one of the most famous tourist areas on the east coast.
