Special Comment:

2014 Rhode Island Department of Education Commended School

Location:

The town of Bristol is a scenic area near many parks and beaches in southern Rhode Island. Aside from outdoor activities, southern Rhode Island offers historic sites such as the Newport Mansions and Fort Adams amongst others. The town is central to large cities such as Providence, Boston, and New York.

The capital city, Providence, is a short bus ride away and provides international students a window into traditional New England. For a small city, Providence offers a number of activities for students to enjoy such as theater, shopping and cafes. The city as has some well-known universities including Brown University.
