

Grier School

Private Boarding School – Tyrone , Pennsylvania

Grier is a private school offering a well-balanced educational program for girls in grades 7 through 12. At Grier, the educational experience incorporates the academics, athletics and the arts in a way that permits students to explore their passions and discover new interests. Students will be challenged in a variety of ways, but will find that support is always there for the student from peers and faculty. Students will learn how to think, listen, communicate with others and make decisions. Best of all, this personal growth will take place in the company of other young people and faculty members whose influence on the student will last a lifetime.

Dormitories and Student Residences

The majority of rooms at Grier are double rooms, with an adjoining bathroom with toilet, sink and shower. Rooms are furnished with two closets, a set of twin beds, window shades, two desks built to accommodate computers, and two chests of drawers. The student must supply any additional furnishings, such as rugs, curtains, desk lamps, fans, hangers.

Location

The school is located 2 1/2 miles SOUTH of Tyrone, Pennsylvania.
