

John Paul II Catholic High School

Private Day School – Tallahassee , Florida

John Paul II Catholic High School is a private, co-ed, college preparatory school, accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS). With less than 200 students in the high school, the low teacher-student ratio creates a classroom environment where creativity and the open exchange of ideas, as well as, a respect for learning co-exist. Students are involved, and highly successful, in a wide variety of activities. Community service and the reinforcement of community values are integral components of the John Paul II educational program. Year after year a significant number of our graduates receive Bright Futures Scholarships to Florida universities and earn an average of over 3.1 million dollars in scholarship funds.

Mission Statement

It is the mission of John Paul II Catholic High School to provide an affordable college preparatory curriculum within a Christ-centered environment. This mission encompasses the education of the whole person-spirit, mind, and body-within the tradition of the Catholic Church.

Additional Information

The Guidance Department of John Paul II Catholic High School strives to provide its students with the opportunity to develop their potential to the fullest extent possible-academically, emotionally, morally, socially, and physically-in order to meet future goals and challenges with wisdom and courage. The guidance department takes a positive developmental approach stressing the dignity and worth of the individual. Services are provided in a confidential and caring atmosphere with the wellbeing of the student as the foremost consideration.

Campus life for students is very much like you might find in a collegiate setting. Our clean, well-maintained environment provides a relaxed setting allowing students to focus on their education and not on the “politics” of student life.
