

La Lumiere School

Private Boarding School – La Porte , Indiana

La Lumiere is a traditional coeducational 9th through 12th grade, college preparatory boarding and day school located an hour east of Chicago on a spectacular 144-acre campus.

La Lumiere's students come from across the United States and the world to become part of a school community that is truly unique. With a student to teacher ratio of eight to one and an average class size of eleven, La Lumiere students enjoy a level of personalized attention that simply does not exist at larger schools.

Academic excellence characterizes the entire curriculum and helps to prepare students to attend some of the best colleges in the country. La Lumiere School seeks to enroll highly motivated, intellectually curious students interested in an exceptional college preparatory experience and a personalized approach to education.

A college preparatory education based in character, scholarship and faith. Welcome to La Lumiere School!

Dormitories and Student Residences

La Lumiere's domestic and international boarding students live in one of six family oriented dorms of 16 to 18 students. In addition, each dorm is headed by a pair of faculty house parents who provide a supportive and caring environment for their students. The majority of the dorm rooms are spacious doubles that face one of La Lumiere's beautiful spring fed lakes.

Location

La Lumiere is located an hour east of Chicago, one half hour from Notre Dame and five miles from the beaches of Lake Michigan. The city of La Porte and Michigan City are both ten minutes away from campus. Area population 22,000.
