

Midland School

Private Boarding School – Los Olivos , California

Founded in 1932, Midland School is a small coeducational college preparatory boarding school for grades 9-12 located on 2,860 acres in beautiful Los Olivos, California. At Midland, students live and learn in a community where they feel connected to one another, their environment, and to a caring faculty of exceptional educators. With a student-to-faculty ratio of 4:1, teachers work closely with students in an academic program that is structured, demanding, and experiential. Midland's peer leadership system, daily jobs program, and sustainability initiatives reinforce individual and collective responsibility. Students graduate from Midland well prepared for selective colleges and universities and instilled with an intellectual curiosity and resilience that serves them well in college and beyond.

Dorm Information

Students of Midland live in cabins located on either end of the property. There are two students per room and each cabin is headed by a wood stove. Bathrooms, showers, and laundry facilities are located in the center of each "quad".
