

St Thomas More School

Private Boarding School – Oakdale , Connecticut

Saint Thomas More is located in Southeastern Connecticut in the rural town of Oakdale. The 100-acre campus is situated on the shores of Gardner Lake. Each year, approximately 20% of our young men are international students. Our alumni roster includes graduates from more than 40 countries.

In addition to the regular academic curriculum, international students are offered special courses to help them make an easier transition to American culture and language. The instructors in our English as a Second Language (ESL) program work intensively with these students until they are ready for the mainstream curriculum.

College preparatory boarding school for young men, providing a learning environment that encourages creative thinking, aesthetic expression, and intellectual curiosity. Welcome to St. Thomas More School!
